Chapter 32 Work Schedules and Breaks

32.1 Policy

The OIST Graduate University (the University) establishes the regular work schedule, breaks, and holidays. To accomplish the business objectives of the University, all employees are expected to be punctual and dependable in their attendance.

32.2 General Considerations

The University recognizes the importance of balancing work and family life, and supports employees by granting special accommodation of work schedule as appropriate, including flexible work schedules as well as exemption from (and restrictions on) overtime and late- night work, in keeping with relevant laws and regulations.

Furthermore, the University requires that administrative meetings (e.g., Senior Level Executive, Divisional, Sectional and Committee meetings) and mandatory research meetings be scheduled, and concluded, within regular business hours (9:00 – 17:30). However, emergencies and/or exceptional circumstances may be dealt with outside of usual business hours.
